Children discover secret fairy castle in North London!

Groups of children have discovered what is probably the best-kept secret in London.

Tucked away behind a small park in an almost fashionable corner of Holloway is Kinloch Castle. Home to not only an assortment of fairies but also every character from every story your child may have read, watched or imagined.

Kinloch Castle is the brainchild of Su Forrester-Brown. Through her company Birthday Dreams she arranges, in the most painstaking and detailed way, the most magical and fantastic parties for your children.

But that is not all! Even if you live in a land far, far away and cannot reach the magical land of Kinloch, Su and her band of characters will be happy to bring the Birthday Dreams magic to you.

In addition to magical entertainers Birthday Dreams will be delighted to bring every conceivable party service to your door, in fact everything to ensure your celebration is a fabulous success!

Birthday Dreams is unique as it is the only party company in London that organises parties only for children. Birthday Dreams also offers every client an individual planning service and personal advice about their forthcoming event to ensure that the party is simply perfect.

If you want to speak with Su about your party requirements please call 0207 700 2525 or email her on info@birthdaydreams.co.uk
